Clay's Corner

"There is coming a moment when God will give all in Christ Jesus a gift. At that moment we will realize as never before that we are totally unworthy of the gift.

At that moment we will realize with understanding just how unworthy of God's consideration we are.

At that moment we will realize how totally dependent we are on God's kindness.

At that moment we will look back at this life with regret as we remember how stupid our priorities were.

At that moment we will realize how little faith we had, how selfish we were, and how blind were to the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

At that moment we will realize that the greatest concept was not the freedom of nations, but the freedom to become what God wanted us to be.

Are you what God had in mind when He raised Jesus Christ from the dead?"

I asked a couple questions Wednesday evening. Do you know what your gifts are? Have you ever really looked to discover what the gifts God gave you are, to use in service to the Kingdom? Have you ever used your gifts in the service God called you to in the Kingdom? Has anyone even taught you how to use those gifts to serve others?

The answers to those questions are telling, they are revealing as to our true spiritual health.

"And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ..." – Ephesians 4:11-12

"... to equip the saints for the work of ministry..."

If your ministry in the Kingdom consists solely of meeting with the other saints two or three times per week you're missing the point of our meeting times.

As a people, we cannot afford to continue to just maintain status quo. We cannot afford to do what we've always done. We're losing ground. And that fact alone is being reflected in the realities of the nation we live in today.

One day, there is coming a moment when the God who gave all He had to redeem mankind from the penalties of sin, will give a gift to those who have used their earthly gifts in service to the Kingdom, another gift. In that moment we will realize...

PRAYER UPDATES

Herb Hahn had surgery on Wednesday in Houston, and though the procedure was a difficult one, he made it through and his prognosis is good. He was expected to spend three days in ICU while he recovers. He had a better day on Thursday. As of Thursday evening, he was alert, but unable to talk due to still being on the ventilator.

Victoria Johnson is scheduled for a third round of steroid injections in her neck next Monday, July 25 in Austin. She will also begin physical therapy to help alleviate the stress on the discs in her neck.

Gabby Lopez, Pauline Alvarez's niece, is very ill.

Leo Walls, Mary Mason's father, was in ICU in Round Rock. His white blood cells counts were elevated and the doctors believe he has an infection.
