Clay's Corner

It's been a busy week. We offer our deepest sympathies to Shirley and her family in the loss of Leon and Raymond. Services for Leon were Friday morning. A memorial service will be held for Raymond, Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. here at the building.

It's easy, if we're not careful, to lose sight of the message if we have preconceived ideas of what we expect to be said or if what is said doesn't agree with our own thoughts. We all have moments like this. Some, like the disciples, more than others. Background, teachings, and other influences all work either together for us or against us in our efforts to do what it is that we do, whether on the job or in our faith. An example of this comes from Matthew 16: 5-12.

And the disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. And Jesus said to them, "Watch out and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." And they began to discuss among themselves, saying, "It is because we took no bread." But Jesus, aware of this, said, "You men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread? Do you not yet understand or remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? Or the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many large baskets you took up? How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. (NASB)

Remember your feeling of stupidity when you misunderstood a discussion? The group or person discussed one thing and you were thinking of something entirely different. What you thought about was totally unrelated to the discussion. Thus, your comment sounded embarrassingly ignorant!

In recent devotionals, the Pharisees confronted Jesus. Society basically considered them as the religious good guys. The 12 knew Jesus was a religious good guy. That conflict confused others, including the 12.

Thus, Jesus warned the 12 about the teaching emphasis of the Pharisees. He compared the Pharisees' emphasis to leaven. Since bread was the basic component of the common person's diet, the 12 thought Jesus was chastising them for forgetting to bring food.

Jesus said, "Why would I be concerned about food? The emphasis of the Pharisees and Sadducees concerns me. You should understand my concern!" Only then did they grasp that Jesus spoke of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees, not their failure to bring food.

Here's a question for self reflection: How does Jesus view your religious emphasis? (Read Romans 11:1-10.)

PRAYER UPDATES

We extend sympathy to Shirley, Dawn and Michael Kuchynka for the death of their husband and father, Raymond Kuchynka, on Tuesday, August 9, and for the death of their brother-in-law and uncle Leon Kuchynka, on Monday, August 8. Services for Leon were held Friday at the Elm Grove Cemetery in Waelder. A memorial service for Raymond will be held Tuesday, August 16 at 10 a.m. at the building.

Herbert Hahn remains at the rehab facility. He was scheduled to be released this past week, but fluid on his lungs delayed that release at least five days while he undergoes treatment. Once released, Herb and Nelle will return to Gonzales for a few days, then they will go stay with their daughter Karen in Pleasanton until Herb regains more strength.
